Chuck Vaughan

Technology Consultant

Chuck Vaughan is a Technology Consultant for TrialGraphix and is based in Nashville. With over 18 years of consulting experience, he has worked on more than 400 matters nationwide, including numerous high-profile and mass exposure cases. Specifically, Chuck has worked on securities, intellectual property, entertainment law, civil rights, wrongful death, defective product/product liability, and professional malpractice matters.

Extensively trained in the most up-to-date litigation technologies, Chuck recommends effective presentation strategies and choreographs presentations for use in any legal setting. He is skilled at working with joint-defense groups, managing large on-site support teams, and counseling multiple clients concurrently.

Notable cases include: SICO v. AIG; Energy Northwest v. United States; Caruso Affiliated Holdings v. General Growth; Clive Cussler et al v. Crusader Entertainment et al; and Asahi Kasei Pharma Corp. v. Actelion Ltd.

Prior to joining TrialGraphix, Chuck worked as a producer for an independent video production house in Miami, where he gained technology, production, and presentation experience.

Chuck holds a B.S. in communications from Florida State University.
