

I.Andryszak@trialgraphix.com

---

Ian Andryszak

Technology Consultant

Based out of the Washington, D.C. office, Ian Andryszak works as a Technology Consultant for TrialGraphix. Ian has more than nine years of experience as a trial consultant and is skilled in database creation and graphic preparation for in-trial presentation.

Ian has been involved in many cases and has worked with several AM Law 100 firms as well as with the Department of Justice. Working directly with Sean Berkowitz, task force leader for the criminal trial of the Enron Executives, and John Hueston, Ian supported the preparation and presentation of opening statements during trial.

No stranger to long hours in the war room and the courtroom, Ian logged seven months on-site in Miami to work with Greenburg Traurig on the BDO Seidman v. Espirto Santo Bank litigation. Since joining RLM, Ian has been involved in several matters, including multiple ITC hearings with Finnegan Henderson.

Whether working off-site on trial prep, in the war room, or in the hot-seat in court, Ian's years of experience allow him to anticipate potential issues and troubleshoot them before they become problems. Ian routinely utilizes the latest software applications in response to the demands of litigation support, including: Trial Director, Sanction, the Adobe suite of software including Acrobat, Photoshop, Illustrator and Premiere; the Microsoft Office suite, with an emphasis on PowerPoint.

Prior to joining TrialGraphix, Ian spent four years working for an East Coast based litigation consulting firm. Ian has a B.S. in Business Administration with a Legal Studies Concentration from Towson University.