Karl Reed

Technology Consultant

Karl Reed is a Technology Consultant for TrialGraphix based in the Miami office. He has over 18 years of experience in the field of litigation support and has assisted on well over 500 matters nationwide, including numerous high-profile and mass exposure cases. He participates in a wide range of cases including product liability, complex commercial disputes, pharmaceutical, reinsurance, securities, intellectual property, environmental, employment, and telecommunication issues.

From years of working in the field, trained in the most up-to-date litigation technologies and a technology background, Karl can easily anticipate, and solve any courtroom technology issues. His experience in the hot seat, attention to detail, and calm demeanor enable him to support teams in the most stressful, demanding projects.

Prior to joining TrialGraphix, Karl worked for several national litigation graphics organizations.

Karl holds a B.S. in Management of Information Systems from Slippery Rock University.
