Tom Bingel

Media Artist

Tom Bingel is a Media Artist with TrialGraphix based in San Diego. Tom specializes in creative and persuasive information graphics and interactive presentations through the use of multimedia design, illustration and image editing.

Tom works closely with legal teams and expert witnesses to develop the most effective use of visual communications from concept to presentation, translating complex technical information into demonstratives. He is adept at incorporating analogies, maps, charts, timelines, illustrations and diagrams into his creative presentations.

Tom has demonstrated attention to detail in high-stakes litigation on matters in a wide range of practice areas, including patent, trademark, copyright, antitrust, securities, trade secret, employment, insurance, criminal defense, environment and product liability.

Notable cases include: Apple v. Samsung; Hernandez v. IBM; TiVo v. EchoStar Corporation; Savaglio v. Walmart; and Rambus v. Infineon.

With over 15 years of graphic design experience prior to joining TrialGraphix, Tom previously served as an Art Director and Studio Manager for Think Twice, Legal Arts and The Data Company.

Tom holds a B.F.A. in Graphic Design from The College of New Jersey.
